

Dennis Lucey

Dennis Lucey is an executive at TKC Global with more than 40 years of business development experience. Dennis has a B.S. in Business from the University of San Francisco and an M.B.A. in Business-Government Relations from American University.

Mr. Lucey has dedicated much of his life to helping religious Sisters and Brothers throughout the world. Whether providing hands on service work or raising funds that are needed for aged and infirmed religious in need, Dennis is always present. Dennis was a member of the SOAR! board of directors and served as chairperson of the board in 2001. An active parishioner at Holy Trinity in Georgetown, Dennis supports nearly every Catholic organization in Washington, DC. Dennis currently serves on the following non-profit boards; Gonzaga College High School; Ignatian Volunteer Corp; So Others Might Eat; Holy Trinity-Sursum Corda Annual Event; Loyola Club of Washington, DC; Teihard de Chardin Film Project; The American-Ireland Fund; Georgetown Visitation and National Peace Corps Association.

Dennis resides in McLean, VA with his wife Pamela. They have two children Christopher 35; Megan 33 and two grandchildren.